

As young lads Boudreaux and Thibodeaux are in the same class in the one room schoolhouse on the bank of the bayou.

On Friday afternoon the teacher announces, "As a homework assignment over the weekend I want each of you to write a one page story about your pet".

On Monday the teacher collects all of the stories and grades them during lunch. At the end of the day she call Boudreaux up to her desk.

"Boudreaux this is a very nice story you turned in", the teacher says.

"Thank you, Ma'am", Boudreaux replies.

"But it's exactly the same, word for word, as the one Thibodeaux turned in. Did you copy from him?", the teacher asks.

"No Ma'am", Boudreaux replies.

"Did you let him copy your story?", the teacher asks.

"No Ma'am", Boudreaux replies.

"Then how do you explain this?", the teacher asks.

"Well Ma'am", Boudreaux explains, "My dog got et by a Alligator and I had da use Thibodeaux's. So you see, dem stories is about da same dog".
