

Boudreaux went to Golden Meadow to attend his uncles funeral. He wanted to look good so he stopped in Pat's Barber Shop for haircut and shave.

The haircut went fine but Pat was having trouble shaving Boudreaux's sunken cheeks.

Pat handed Boudreaux two large ball bearings and said, "Here, put these in your mouth, one on each side, they will hold your cheeks out".

Boudreaux did as he was told and received the closest shave ever, well ever since his back teeth fell out anyway.

As Pat turned to put away the straight razor he knocked over a bottle of hair tonic. The bottle hit the floor with a loud crash - and the startled Boudreaux swallowed one of the ball bearings.

"Pat, what I gonna do? I jus swallared one of yure ball bearings", Boudreaux cried.

"Not a problem", Pat calmly replied, "Just wait a few days and bring it back to me then - that's what everyone else does".
