

Charmaine watched Boudreaux through the kitchen window. He was sitting on the dock gazing down the bayou and looking quite miserable. She went out to see what the problem was.

“What’s da matta wit you Boudreaux? You been moppin round fer two days now”, she demanded.

“Sit down Charmaine, I got some bad news”, Boudreaux replied.

“What’s dat?”, Charmaine asked.

“I only got 48 mo days ta live”, Boudreaux replied.

“What? Is dat what dat fool doctor told you?”, Charmaine screamed.

“Not like dat he didn’t. But look here”, Boudreaux pulled a small medicine bottle out of his pocket and continued, “He said I gotta take one of dese ever day fer da rest of my life”.

“So?”, Charmaine asked.

“So count ‘em”, Boudreaux exclaimed, “Deres 48 pills left in dat bottle”.
