

As young lads Boudreaux and Thibodeaux were in the same class at the one room schoolhouse on the bank of the bayou. One hot August afternoon the teacher saw both boys sleeping during the vocabulary lesson.

“Boudreaux - Thibodeaux - Wake up”, she yelled.

The boys sat up straight and acted like they knew what was going on in class.

“Thibodeaux, can you make a sentence using fascinate?”, the teacher demanded.

Thibodeaux thought for a second then miserably admitted that he could not.

“I thought not. Boudreaux can you?”, the teacher asked.

“Sure I can”, Boudreaux replied at once, “Last winter Papa bought a coat with ten buttons on it, but his belly was so big he could only fasten eight”.
