

One Saturday night Boudreaux went out for a few beers and didn't come back. For two days Charmaine worried. Finally her friend Marie talked her into filing a missing persons report with the sheriff.

The sheriff asked Charmaine for a description of Boudreaux.

"Well he's about 6'1", maybe 195 pounds, blonde wavy hair, muscular, handsome, well mannered, and treats me like a queen", Charmaine replied.

"Okay, we'll find him for you", the sheriff reassured her.

In the car going home Marie asked Charmaine, "Why did you tell the sheriff all dat stuff? Boudreaux is short, fat, ugly as sin, loud mouthed, and treats you like crap. De sheriff ain't never gonna find him with dat description you gave him".

"I know", Charmaine replied, "But if he can find me da one I described, Boudreaux can just stay lost".
