

It was payday and all of the men folk were gathering at the bar. Thibodeaux looked down the bar at Pierre, shook his head and chuckled.

“Pierre, every time I look at you I think about Boudreaux. Here, have a beer”, Thibodeaux stated and passed a beer to Pierre.

“Thanks my friend. But why you think of Boudreaux whenever you see me? I’m young, strong, honest, and women think I’m good looking - I ain’t nothing like Boudreaux”, Pierre said.

“You’re right, Boudreaux ain’t none of dem things”, Thibodeaux said.

“Den I wonder what is it about me that reminds you of Boudreaux?”, Pierre asked.

“Oh its probably dat you both owe me a hundred dollars”, Thibodeaux said.
