

Boudreaux watched Little Pierre shuffle up the path.

"Pierre you don't look too happy," Boudreaux said.

"I ain't. I got in trouble at school today," Pierre said.

"Now you gotta do good in school Pierre. You gotta stay outta trouble," Boudreaux lectured.

Pierre blew out a long breath, kicked the dirt, then looked up at Boudreaux. "Well it's all your fault," Pierre accused.

"And how do you figure dat Mr. Smartie pants?" Boudreaux demanded.

"You remember yesterday when I was doin my homework and I asked you what 250,000 and 500,000 was?" Pierre asked.

"Yeah. So?" Boudreaux replied.

"So 'a helluva lot' ain't da right answer," Pierre stated.
