

Charmaine came down the bayou padding furiously. She ran the pirogue up on the bank and jumped out, she didn't even tie it off before running into the house.

"Pack your bags cause I just won the lottery," she yelled as she danced around the room.

Boudreaux started dancing and singing too, "We won ... We won ... We won the lottery."

Charmaine pushed him into the bedroom singing, "Pack ... Pack ... Pack ... Hurry, hurry, hurry."

Boudreaux grabbed his suitcase and asked, "What should I pack beach clothes, city clothes, cowboy clothes?"

"I don't care Boudreaux," Charmaine said, "Just put something in there and get the hell out."
