

Boudreaux sat patiently in the bankers office, he was enjoying the air conditioning. He was there for his monthly discussion about the status of his finances - the status was not good.

"You're in trouble Boudreaux," Clarence the banker said.

"Oh I know," Boudreaux mumbled.

"Your checking account is over drawn," Clarence went on.

"Yeah, I know," Boudreaux mumbled.

"Your loan payments are past due," Clarence continued.

Boudreaux just hung his head.

"Your credit cards are maxed out. I don't know how much longer we are going to be able to extend your credit. Boudreaux, what are you going to do?" Clarence asked.

"I don't know. It's Charmaine, she just goes crazy in dem stores," Boudreaux explained.

"Why do you let her go wild like that?" Clarence demanded.

"To tell de truth Clarence," Boudreaux said, "Cause it's easier to argue with you dan with her."
