

Boudreaux, Thibodeaux, Pierre, Trusclair, and Old Man John were playing cards in the back room at Pierre's Bar. Suddenly Old Man John grabbed his chest, groaned, and fell over dead.

Everybody was upset but nobody wanted to be the one to tell John's wife Jean. Finally Boudreaux accepted the task.

"You gotta break it to her gently. We don't want Miss Jean to think we had anything to do with dis," Thibodeaux urged.

"Don't worry. I know what to say," Boudreaux assured them.

When Jean answered the door Boudreaux said, "Miss Jean your husband is in a card game at Pierre's Bar and wants you to send him 500 more dollars."

"Da nerve of dat man! Boudreaux you go tell dat old coot dat I said to drop dead," Jean said.

Yes'um, I'll go tell him right now," Boudreaux said.
