

Boudreaux and Thibodeaux were working up in Lafayette. Neither of them had missed a day of work for near two weeks - they decided to celebrate this accomplishment by having lunch in the fanciest restaurant in town.

They were seated at a nice table near the windows and the waiter took their order for iced tea.

Both Boudreaux and Thibodeaux took sandwiches out of their bags and put them on the table.

The waiter returned with the iced tea and saw the boys. "You guys can't eat your own sandwiches in here," he told them.

Boudreaux and Thibodeaux looked at each other for a minute. Boudreaux said, "Oh, yeah, I'm sorry." Then he shrugged his shoulders and traded sandwiches with Thibodeaux.
